

Travertine-Cushioned-Edge

Travertine Cushioned Edge is a rich ivory colored stone tile with a satin matte, brushed finish to provide a warm, luxurious atmosphere. All edges are hand warned and acid washed. It is suitable for indoor and outdoor flooring where a stylish and modern look is preferred. Travertine Cushion Edge is known in different names as Travertine Pillowed Edge, Pillow Edge, Wavy Edge Travertine or Napoli Travertine. Although this stone is marketed at the more trendy and costly side of the Travertine Flooring in the UK, you can benefit from our extended special Summer offer for the Opus Romano Pattern of this range. Please give us a call to discuss your stone tile flooring and walling projects. We can suggest the best stone tiles to fit to your bathroom, kitchen, hall, living room, conservatory, garden, driveway, patio for modern building decorations or period building renovations. We can arrange delivery of your orders from our warehouse in Rainham Essex (next to London) to anywhere in England, Wales and Scotland as well as continental Europe. People who visited this page also checked these products: Silver Gray Travertine Travertine Light Antique Travertine Light Tumbled Travertine Noche Tumbled

