Botticino-Premium-Marble-Polished

Bottichino Polished Marble is our new entry to our marble and limestone tile portfolio. Used in monumental buildings mostly within the dorian kingdom of sparta in ancient greece, spartan cream botticino marble has been widely known by its place in art history and thus renovations, decorations, design in renaissance and modern age based on the themes and tastes of this mythological era. Nowadays it is chosen for its consistent creamy look, with slight variations to its warm shades. It shows the glossy look of a polished stone tile fabulously. Suitable for anywhere indoors whether it is a kitchen, bathroom or living room as well as large and wide spaces covering receptions, malls and halls. Apart from the polished and botticino tumbled finishes, we now have a honed finish 12x406x406mm tile in this range to be able to offer an non-slippery option for wet rooms and bathrooms.
