

Travertine-Gold-Tumbled

Travertine gold tumbled is a stylish choice for kitchens, bathrooms, hallways and any other indoor surface where a slightly aged and antique look is sought with a preference to gold shades on the stone tile. It is a rare and specialist product and a popular item in the antique section of our travertine tiles portfolio. Please contact us for the latest stock and prices of this item as there are not many stockists for this stone in the UK market.
